ZINES! (re)make history

February 3–26, 2009

Reception: Tuesday, February 3 • 6–8 p.m.

Workshop: Wednesday, February 11 • 6–8 p.m.

Gallery closed February 16

An exhibit and workshop on underground publishing curated by Grrrl Zines A-Go-Go. This is not just an exhibit, but an active exploration of zine culture and production, including a “Scrap Lounge” in which visitors can create their own zine. Zines are the print media of an “alternative” culture that turns out not to be so alternative after all. Self-published and without censorship, zines are raw culture, not mass media that relies on the wealth of advertising for its editorial decisions.
